

Permission to Use Student Work

1. Grant of Permission. I, the undersigned, am a student at American University (“AU”), and I hereby give to AU my permission to use the following work (the “Work”):

[Insert description of the Work prepared by the student.]

2. Scope of Permission. This permission extends to the use of the Work as described below:

[Insert specific description of the permitted use of the Work, e.g., “Inclusion of the Work on a website based at AU operated by Professor Smith, accessible without restriction, in connection with History 101.”]

3. Certification of Authorship. I am the owner of the copyright to the Work, and the Work is not now subject to any grant or restriction that would prevent its use consistent with this permission. Except as explicitly indicated on the Work, all aspects of the Work are original to me and have not been copied or adapted from other sources.

4. Privacy Release. I hereby authorize and consent to the release, maintenance and display of my name, status as a student at AU, and any other personal information I have provided in connection with the Work and its use by AU. This authorization also includes the disclosure of the content of the Work itself and any associated information. I hereby release The Trustees of American University, its member trustees, officers, employees and agents, and any other person who may be legally liable, from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, and suits, including but not limited to claims for invasion of privacy, defamation, breach of contract or other breach of duty, arising out of or in connection with the maintenance, use or release of any personal information as described above.
