

Department of Public Administration and Policy
Research Seminar Series
Fall 2010 Schedule

All seminars will take place in Ward Circle Building, Room 300, at 11:00 a.m.

- 9/8 Appointee-Careerist Relations and the Potential Impact on Presidential Transition
Bill Resh, Ph.D. student in Public Administration
- 9/22 Public Service Motivation & Prosocial Behavior: Do Public Sector Employees Practice
What They Preach?
Jaclyn Schede, Ph.D. student in Public Administration
- 10/6 Do Universities Practice Gender Sensitive Admissions?
Dylan Conger, Associate Professor of Public Policy, George Washington University
- 10/20 Accountability and Discretion in the Age of Contracting: When and Why do Public Managers
Implement Sanctions for Unsatisfactory Contract Performance?
Amanda Girth, Ph.D. graduate in Public Administration & Adjunct Instructor
- 11/3 Equality of What? An Antipodean Answer
Karen Baehler, Scholar-in-Residence

Please direct questions or feedback to David Pitts at pitts@american.edu.